YOU CAN SEE AND DO SO MUCH IN SPAIN

By Michelle Colandrea, AAA Northampton County Travel Agent

In October 2023 I enjoyed traveling throughout Spain with Trafalgar tours. This was a fully guided tour with our personal tour guides and driver. Each day included a variety of tours but it also included some downtime. During our downtime, our guide offered optional excursions to take or we simply enjoyed time to ourselves.

Our first couple of nights we stayed in Madrid. You could relax in the lush gardens of Buen Retiro Park, shop up a storm on Gran Vía or people-watch over coffee and churros con chocolate in the Puerta del Sol. We also enjoyed learning more about the Royal Palace during a walking tour. During our free time, we enjoyed walking around shopping and ended up grabbing a bite to eat at the San Miguel food market.

We also went to Toledo, the former capital of Spain, where we joined a local specialist for a walking tour of this city that dates back to Roman times. One product Toledo has been renowned for since the 16th century is Toledo steel. Toledo became a center of traditional sword-making and Toledo swords became the standard weaponry among the Romans. Afterward, we enjoyed seeing El Greco's most famous paintings in the Church of Santo Tomé. We also toured the synagogue of Santa Maria La Blanca.

We continued south to Córdoba. There we had a local specialist on a tour of the Mosque of the Caliphs and learned about centuries of Moorish rule and its influence on the culture and architecture of the region. Then we were off to Seville, our home for the next two nights. One evening, we connected with locals, joining the Morillo family for a Be My Guest experience at their olive oil farm, where we learned how oil is produced from their 6,000 trees and sampled some of their produce. While in Seville we enjoyed a flamenco show with a tapas-style dinner, which I highly recommend.

Onward to Granada. Here we visited the magnificent Alhambra. The Alhambra is an ancient palace, fortress and citadel located in Granada. The 800-year-old site was named for the reddish walls and towers that surrounded the citadel. The peaceful gardens provide a pleasant contrast to the busy palaces and fortresses. While still popular among visitors, it's hard not to feel a sense of inner peace and tranquility while walking through this beautiful green space. If you visit in the spring or summer, you'll have the pleasure of seeing the colorful gardens in full bloom.

Next, we continued north along the coast through the Levant region and stopped at Peñíscola, the "City in the Sea." We viewed the ancient castle of the "Spanish Pope" and then journeyed along the Costa Dorada to Barcelona, with its whimsical Gaudí architecture. In Barcelona we enjoyed so much architecture, including the unfinished La Sagrada Família. During our free time, we booked a food tour which took us to various stops around the city. After that, we enjoyed some shopping on Las Ramblas.

You can see and do so much in Spain from bullfights, massive cathedrals, world-class art, Muslim palaces, whitewashed villages, delicious paella, sunny beaches and lively nightlife. Let me know when you are ready to book your trip to Spain.

ICELAND AND THE BLUE LAGOON

Iceland, the “Land of Fire and Ice,” exhibits a geological diversity of incredibly stark contrasts. Thundering waterfalls and effervescent geysers share landscapes alongside tranquil glacial lagoons and enormous lava fields. This exotic environment creates spectacular scenes and presents visitors to the island with a unique insight into Earth’s geological evolution.

An Iceland vacation will provide an opportunity to discover just how dramatically diverse our planet’s landscapes can be. Let’s take a look at some of the most popular sites for travelers.

Northeast of Reykjavik, the Golden Circle route leads to the geographically, historically and culturally significant Thingvellir National Park. At this UNESCO World Heritage site, you see the effects of Continental Drift revealed where the shifting of North American and Eurasian tectonic plates altered the landscape, creating massive cracks or faults in the Earth’s surface. On this site was the Althing, the ancient official assembly of Icelandic chieftains, documented as established in 930, it is considered the oldest existing parliament in the world.

Impressive photo opportunities exist to capture nature in action at the world-famous hot springs area of Geysir. Wait just a few minutes for the Strokkur geyser to erupt and you witness an explosive column of water and steam spout between 10 and 40 meters high. Gullfoss, which translates as “Golden Waterfall,” so named because of the radiant color it displays in particular circumstances of natural light, is located nearby.

Iceland’s South Coast is home to spectacular waterfalls and Eyjafjallajökull, a stratovolcano completely covered by an icecap that feeds numerous glaciers. Take your time during a visit to the Skogar Folk Museum to gain cultural insights into Icelandic history and social heritage.

Provided the right atmospheric conditions and a clear night sky, you might be fortunate to see the Aurora Borealis, also known as the Northern Lights. Your best chance to be dazzled by this unpredictable phenomenon is from September to March.

About 50 minutes from Reykjavik, the capital city, is the popular Blue Lagoon, which offers the opportunity to bathe in an “oasis of relaxation.” The water is maintained at a temperature of 99-102 degrees – perfect for relaxing. Naturally occurring silicate minerals in the water are the primary cause of the lagoon’s milky blue color.

Natural wonders are so abundant in Iceland that it’s no wonder travelers return again and again. However, not all the delights of Iceland are found in its vast, undeveloped countryside. As the country’s cultural, political and social capital, Reykjavik also is alluring with its many attractions.

IT'S TIME TO DISCOVER THE GALÁPAGOS ISLANDS

You've heard of them. You've seen documentaries and television specials about them. You may know someone who's been to them. But now it's time for you to discover the Galápagos Islands for yourself.

Unlike Paris or Hong Kong, many people can't even find the Galápagos Islands on a map. The islands (there are 21 of them) lie more than 530 miles off the coast of Ecuador in the Pacific Ocean. They were discovered in the 16th century but gained popularity in the 19th century by naturalist Charles Darwin and other researchers as they came to study the varied flora and fauna on the islands, something that continues today.

Getting to the Galápagos Islands is easier than ever with flights that go straight to the islands. From there you can take tours to visit the different islands as each features some different creatures. Trips can be by small boats or even by small cruise ships, which then launch smaller vessels to get even closer. To protect the environment, every tour is limited by size and time and is led by a licensed guide. In fact, UNESCO named the islands a World Heritage Site in 1978.

Naturally, when people talk about the Galápagos Islands, one of two animals comes to mind: either the Galápagos giant tortoise or iguanas. There are at least two types of iguanas found on the islands, the Galápagos land iguana and the Marine iguana, the only iguana that feeds in the ocean.

Other animals you might encounter once you make your way to the islands include the blue-footed booby, Galápagos sea lions and the Galápagos penguin and Waved albatross, the latter being the only species that live in tropical climates.

These and many other animals can be researched and learned about at the Charles Darwin Research Station on Santa Cruz Island. It also is home to the Charles Darwin Foundation for the Galapagos Islands, which is celebrating its 65th anniversary this year. The Research Station, which is celebrating its 60th anniversary this year, is open daily and is free. It recently opened its Marine World Exhibition, promoting its marine and conservation projects as well as offering fun learning tools for children.

But the trip has to start sometime so call your travel advisor and get the ball rolling today.

CRUISING THROUGH NEW ENGLAND AND CANADA

Want to discover the beauty of New England and Canada as well as experience its history and savor its cuisine, all in seven days? You can by taking a cruise with itineraries from New York City in late summer and early fall, which happens to be peak leaf-peeping season in Maine.

With its rugged natural beauty – a rock-bound coastline and soaring granite cliffs – Bar Harbor, Maine, has attracted adventurers since the 19th century.

Surrounded by Acadia National Park, Bar Harbor is a magnet for nature lovers. The park contains more than 120 miles of historic hiking trails and is home to many plants and animals, as well as the tallest mountain on the U.S. Atlantic coast. Visitors come to Acadia to hike granite peaks, bike historic carriage roads or relax and enjoy the beauty.

Bass Harbor Head Light, built in 1858, is one of the most photographed lights in Maine. Though the residence and grounds are U.S. Coast Guard property, great views of the seaside can be found from two trails surrounding the property.

Many events of the American Revolution occurred in Boston, the capital of Massachusetts, and you can learn about them on the Freedom Trail. Fenway Park, the oldest professional sports venue still in use and home of the Red Sox, can be found in Boston. It is one of the city's many architecturally noteworthy buildings created in the early 20th century, including Horticultural Hall, Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, the Boston Opera House and the Longfellow Bridge.

Halifax, Nova Scotia's capital and the largest city in Canada's Atlantic Provinces, is the gateway to stunning scenery, including Peggy's Cove, where surf-pounded granite cliffs and a solitary lighthouse create an unsurpassed scene of rugged natural beauty. Peggy's Point Lighthouse, a classic red-and-white beacon built in 1914, is still in use today although visitors are no longer allowed inside. The nearby city of Lunenburg, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, offers the best example of an 18th-century planned British colonial settlement in North America. It also is considered to be "The Balsam Fir Christmas Tree Capital of the World."

Yet another capital, New Brunswick, Saint John, is Canada's oldest settlement and was a thriving industrial port until it was leveled by fire in 1877.

But, like the Phoenix, it rose from the ashes and restored the town's charm and its sense of history. New Brunswick is set on the Bay of Fundy, which produces the highest tides in the world. Each day, 100 billion tons of seawater flow in and out of the bay during a single tide cycle. The tides also create Reversing Rapids, a natural phenomenon of a river changing direction when the tides collide with the mighty Saint John River.

These are just some of the port stops if you take a cruise to New England and Canada. Contact your AAA travel advisor and book your cruise vacation today.

ICON OF THE SEAS LIVES UP TO ITS NAME

By Christina Pittaro, AAA Northampton County Travel Manager

Currently the largest cruise ship in the world, Royal Caribbean's Icon of the Seas runs on liquified natural gas, hosts passengers in more than 2,800 staterooms and spans 18 decks to enjoy whatever you desire. With eight unique neighborhoods, there's plenty of space and surely something to please everyone.

Feeling adventurous? Be sure to make your way to Thrill Island, where you can take part in the largest waterpark at sea, with six record-breaking slides. Harness yourself in for a daring over-water adventure course. You also will find the infamous rock-climbing wall, FlowRider and a miniature golf course.

Time to relax? Head over to Chill Island. This oasis features seven pools including an infinity pool, several whirlpools, in-water loungers and Royal Caribbean's first swim-up bar, Swim & Tonic.

My favorite spot onboard is The AquaDome. This tranquil haven not only houses the Aqua Theater, you also will find a jewelry store, coffee bar, crepe station and, with its 220-degree panoramic ocean views, there are plenty of cozy spaces to take it all in.

Surfside is a whole deck dedicated to families with young kids. Located on Deck 7, you will find a carousel, an arcade, a water park, as well as a fun mocktail bar, family-friendly food and not only soft-serve ice-cream but the best milkshakes with mounds of toppings, so be sure to save some room.

Central Park will be familiar to those who have previously sailed on other Royal Caribbean ships, but this one is larger and greener. Filled with thousands of exotic plants and trees, this is a gardener's dream. It's a great place any time of day or night. Along with some favorites like Izumi and Chops Grille, you also will find the cutest champagne bar called Bubbles as well as Lou's Jazz 'N Blues and Izumi's sushi to go.

The Royal Promenade is like no other since this one holds The Pearl. This sphere is a glass art masterpiece, two decks high and features 3,000 panels that move and change colors. This area is filled with shops, restaurants and bars including the amusing Dueling Pianos Bar.

If you can, you definitely should splurge for a suite, and along with your luxurious accommodations, you will have exclusive access to the Suite Neighborhood. With a private pool and hot tub, upscale dining at two restaurants and access to the Suite Lounge in the AquaDome, this dedicated retreat is just for suite guests to enjoy.

Although this ship offers so much for children, adults need their space too. That's where the Hideaway comes in. This adult-only paradise is located in the aft of the ship, featuring the first suspended infinity pool at sea. Adults can spend hours here, relaxing on a daybed or having a drink at the wraparound bar and taking in the amazing views.

Top-notch entertainment includes an amazing water show in the AquaDome, an incredible ice-skating performance, Broadway shows like "The Wizard of Oz," live music venues, children's productions, adult comedy shows and more.

Work out in the multilevel fitness center and then indulge in a facial at the beautiful Vitality spa. Try your luck in the casino or sing your heart out at Spotlight Karaoke. While the kids are having a blast in Adventure Ocean, adults can have fun playing foosball and a game of pool or darts at Playmaker's Sports Bar & Arcade.

With more than 40 restaurants and bars, there is certainly something to please everyone's palate.

One of my biggest concerns about going on such a large ship was how long I would have to wait for the elevator. This new technology is a game changer and put my fear to rest. You just click the screen with what floor you are going and it tells you which elevator to get on. This reduces wait time and eliminates having to stop on more than two floors.

I had the pleasure to meet Rover, the one and only, Chief Dog Officer. She explores the ship along with her owner, in most of the neighborhoods onboard. As she does not have scheduled meet and greets, if you do happen to see her around, she will gladly welcome a belly rub.

Whether you are looking for a honeymoon, solo trip or multigenerational family reunion, look no further than the Icon of the Seas. As you can tell, there is something for everyone to enjoy. Contact your AAA travel advisor and book your next vacation on the Icon of the Seas.

MIAMI OFFERS SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Whether you are heading there to take a cruise or planning on spending a week to escape the weather of the northeast, you are bound to find a hotel to fit your needs in Miami, some of which are AAA Diamond rated.

From brands like IHG Hotels & Resorts (Holiday Inn and Kimpton), Marriott International (Ritz-Carlton, St. Regis and W), Hyatt, Hilton (Conrad, DoubleTree, Hampton) and The Ritz-Carlton, there's a resort or hotel to fit your budget as well or near where you want to be.

And in Miami, there is plenty to see.

Of course, what drives folks to South Florida is the beaches and the most famous is Miami's South Beach, which lies along the southern tip of the island of Miami Beach. The white sand beach is dotted with colorful lifeguard stands and rests next to the recognizable scene of Art Deco architecture and boutique hotels.

In Coral Gables, Matheson Hammock Park Beach is preferred for parents with young children because of its sheltered beach with a man-made atoll pool that accommodates new swimmers.

For even more natural beauty dealing with water, check out Everglades National Park and perhaps take an airboat tour. Or set sail on the Island Queen and see the homes of the "rich and famous on a Millionaire's Row cruise through Biscayne Bay. Back on land, you can study orchids and other native plants at the Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden.

History and architecture aficionados will want to explore Vizcaya Museum and Gardens, an Italianate villa overlooking Biscayne Bay in Coconut Grove. It was once the winter home of affluent industrialist James Deering. If art is your thing, the Wynwood Arts District is the spot to explore the world of street art. Find it at Wynwood Walls, an outdoor museum dedicated to the art form. Then, pay a visit to the Pérez Art Museum Miami to check out its collection of contemporary art of the Americas. Right next door, you can see incredible sights at the Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science, which houses both a planetarium and an aquarium.

Just across Biscayne Boulevard from the Frost Museum of Science, the Freedom Tower is the place to learn about Miami's Cuban migration. The historic building also is home to the Museum of Art and Design at Miami Dade College. Continue your exploration of Miami's rich Caribbean and Latin American culture in neighborhoods including Little Havana and Little Haiti, as well as its fascinating Black history in Historic Overtown.

To plan your Miami escape, contact your AAA travel advisor and book your vacation today.

VIKING CONQUERS NORTH AMERICA CRUISE LINE JOURNEYS ALONG THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER

After winning over the European river cruise market and leading the way for more than 20 years, Viking Cruises headed for North America with a ship built specifically for the task.

The Viking Mississippi debuted in 2022 when Viking started cruising along the Mississippi River for the first time. The Viking Mississippi sails between New Orleans and St. Paul with nine different itineraries, offering tours in every port along the Mighty Mississippi.

Viking is offering seven Mississippi River cruises for you to choose from, comprising seven U.S. states. One of Viking's longest Mississippi itineraries, the Grand Mississippi Voyage, heads from New Orleans, Louisiana, to St. Paul, Minnesota, and includes 16 guided tours over 22 days. Enjoy scenic sailing and unparalleled birdwatching as the landscape changes from the bayous of the south to the bluffs of the north, with history and culture unfolding along the way. Learn about the American Civil Rights Movement and the Civil War. Along the way, tap your feet to the music as you experience the rhythms of American folk, soul and jazz – and taste the array of regional cuisine.

Viking offers two 12-day cruises: Heart of the Delta and America's Heartland. Sail from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Memphis, Tennessee, on the Heart of the Delta itinerary, immersing yourself in history, heritage, music and food. Soak up the cultures that infuse the Lower Mississippi and be inspired by the stories of famed musicians and civil rights heroes. Savor delicious Cajun and Creole cuisine, as well as Memphis' famous barbecue. And stir your soul with the rhythms of Dixieland jazz, Delta blues and gospel. (A new, shorter eight-day itinerary, the Mississippi Delta Explorer, also travels from New Orleans to Memphis, if you prefer.)

The America's Heartland itinerary takes you along the Upper Mississippi, from St. Louis, Missouri, to St. Paul, Minnesota. On this journey, you will enjoy nine guided tours, allowing for experiences like hearing stories of pioneers and the Lewis and Clark Expedition; walking in the footsteps of Mark Twain; and learning about the Norwegian migration. Enjoy the view as your ship navigates through the river's lock system and experience the region's many cultural treasures – from ragtime, polka and Norwegian folk music to Wisconsin cheese, craft beer and hearty stews.

Savor the flavors of the Old South on New Orleans & Southern Charms, an eight-day itinerary, roundtrip from New Orleans. Explore historic estates and visit notable Civil War sites. Sample the bustling French-flavored port cities of New Orleans and Baton Rouge, as well as stops in Natchez and Vicksburg, Mississippi. Sway to the tempos of Dixieland jazz, gospel and blues and savor gourmet Cajun and Creole cuisine.

Besides the tours offered during your cruises, Viking has optional tours available either before or after your cruise for the city you are embarking or disembarking.

Book now for the best deals and get the date you want as some cruises sell out quickly. Contact a AAA Travel Agent to plan your future cruise.

HOW A AAA MEMBERSHIP CAN HELP YOU SAVE ON LIFE INSURANCE

“Better call AAA!”

You’ve likely seen a movie or TV show where a character utters this phrase when a car breaks down or won’t start. AAA has become synonymous with its roadside assistance program – a service you hopefully never need to use but are relieved to have if you’ve ever been stranded.

This is just a small slice of what a AAA membership offers, which ranges from travel to financial services, insurance options and local discounts for area restaurants and businesses. A AAA membership can pay off quickly and provide value in many areas of your life.

It’s important to note that AAA is comprised of regional clubs across the United States, so the benefits offered by your club can vary depending on your residence. There also are membership tiers to review to make sure you’re getting the most out of the membership that works best for your budget.

This guide is intended to provide an idea of some of the most common benefits, but the best way to see the full offerings of your local club is to check out aaa.com, which will automatically navigate you to the club that services your area.

More Than a Tow Truck, But That’s Important, Too

The roadside assistance program extends well beyond AAA’s well-known towing services. You also can call when you need fuel, are locked out of your vehicle or are stuck with a dead battery or flat tire (engines are optional here: AAA helps with bicycles, too). If you need a mechanic, participating locations may offer AAA member discounts.

The travel perks can help provide savings quickly, too. Your club may offer deals on resort or cruise packages or individual flight, hotel and car rental discounts to help keep your vacation costs down. Many clubs have deals with multiple restaurant partners, offering some savings on dining out (and even food delivery services).

Local sports teams and entertainment options occasionally provide AAA member discounts, as well. If you’re a member, or looking to become one, it’s worth frequently revisiting the list of discounts in your area so you’re taking full advantage of what your club offers in your area.

And what about maps? AAA can provide free maps of more than 400 locations across North America – you won’t always have cell service, after all.

Where Does Life Insurance Fit In?

Apologies for bringing up stressful high school memories, but it’s time for a pop quiz. Do you need to be a AAA member to get a policy from AAA Life Insurance Co.?

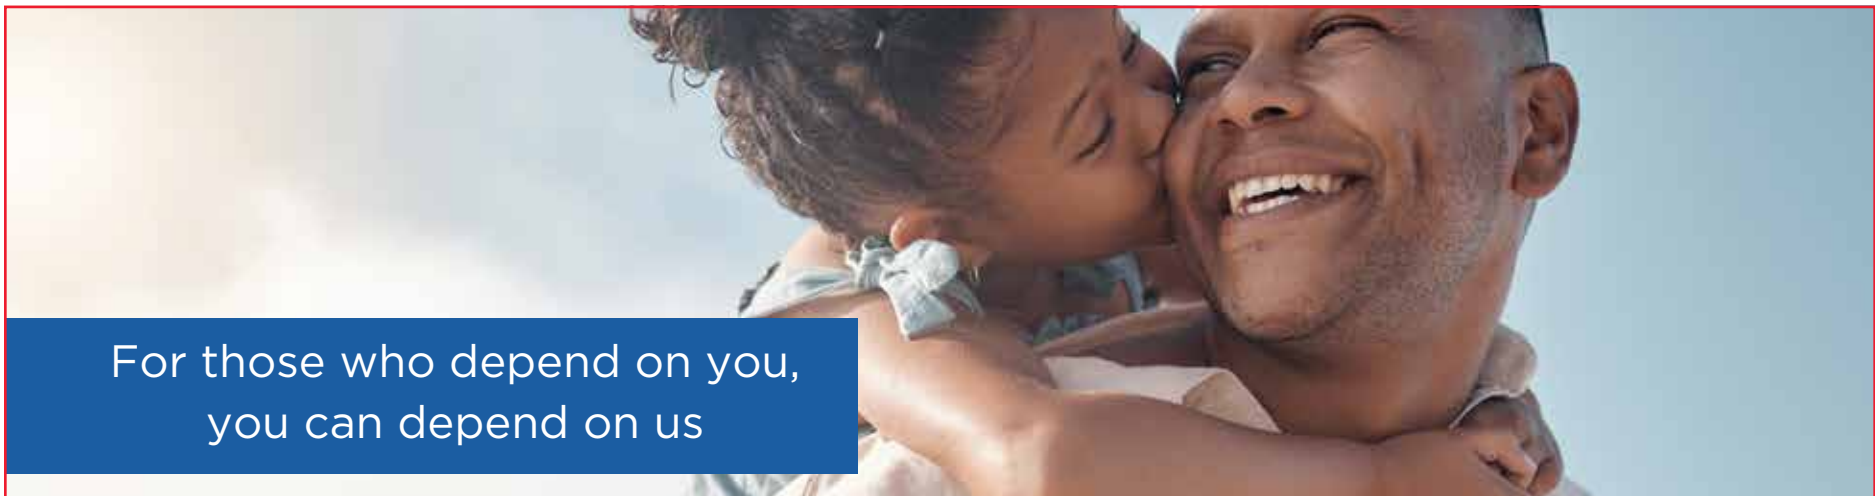

The answer is no, but if you’re in the market for life insurance, being a member can help you save in that area, too.

We also should mention that your local AAA agents may offer many other insurance options, including health, auto, boat, home, renters, travel and accident insurance, so working to bundle your options with one trusted partner is another way to keep your prices down.

With life insurance specifically, AAA Life will waive the $60 annual policy fee on a guaranteed issue whole life policy and AAA members can enjoy a 10% discount on their premium payment with term life policies, too. That savings alone could account for a significant portion of the annual membership cost (which does vary depending on your membership tier).

Without a doubt, it’s worth looking at your local AAA club and fully investigating each perk, and where the membership could offer savings on your current budget.

If you’re an existing or soon-to-be AAA member looking to cash in on your membership’s life insurance discount, call our experienced agents today at (484) 546-0719 or learn more about your life insurance coverage options on aaalife.com.

For those who depend on you,
you can depend on us

Call (484) 546-0719 or visit AAA.com/Life to get a quote. Or speak to an agent in your local AAA branch office about the right coverage for you.

THE SILENT SUMMER THREAT: HOW HEAT WRECKS YOUR CAR BATTERY

Summer's warmth beckons with road trips, beach days and windows-down adventures. But amidst the sunshine lurks a silent threat. The brutal heat can wreak havoc on your car battery, leaving you stranded and frustrated. While winter often gets the blame for battery woes, the reality is that summer's scorching temperatures are far more detrimental.

UNDERSTANDING THE CHEMISTRY

Car batteries rely on a delicate balance of chemical reactions. Inside, lead plates bathe in an electrolyte solution, generating electricity through oxidation-reduction. The ideal operating temperature for this is around 80°F. Beyond that, things start to unravel.

corroded and sulfated battery struggles to crank your engine, leading to slow starts or complete failure. This can leave you stranded at the most inconvenient moments, potentially ruining your summer plans and creating a stressful ordeal.

HEAT'S DEVASTATING IMPACT

Evaporation: As temperatures climb, the electrolyte solution evaporates at an alarming rate. This exposes the lead plates, leading to internal damage and reduced lifespan. Imagine your battery slowly losing its lifeblood, weakening with every passing hot day.

Corrosion: Heat accelerates corrosion, where harmful deposits build up on the battery's internal components. This hinders the efficient flow of electricity, reducing your battery's ability to hold a charge. Think of corrosion as rust eating away at the battery's functionality.

Sulfation: Tiny sulfate crystals form on the lead plates during normal operation. While regular charging usually breaks these down, heat exacerbates the process, leading to larger, more stubborn crystals. Imagine your battery becoming clogged with these crystals, choking its ability to produce electricity.

PROTECTING YOUR BATTERY

Fortunately, you're not powerless against summer's heat. Here are some proactive steps you can take:

Park in the Shade: Whenever possible, park in shaded areas to minimize direct sunlight exposure. This can significantly reduce the battery's internal temperature.

Keep it Clean: Dust and grime act as insulators, trapping heat around the battery. Regularly clean the battery compartment to improve airflow and heat dissipation.

Maintain Your Electrical System: Ensure all electrical connections are clean and tight to minimize energy loss and prevent further strain on the battery.

Consider a Battery Test: Before summer's peak, get your battery tested. This proactive approach can identify potential issues early on, allowing you to address them before they leave you stranded.

Don't let the silent threat of heat steal your summer joy. Remember, a little care goes a long way in keeping your vehicle on the road and your summer plans on track. Contact AAA Mobile Battery Service today for a free battery test. Its expert technicians will quickly assess your battery's health and provide valuable insights into its condition.

Visit AAA.com/carbatteryquote or call 800-AAA-HELP (800-222-4357) to schedule your free battery test. Don't wait until it's too late – take control and ensure a worry-free summer season.

AAA DISCOUNTS REWARDS

Expires 08/31/2024

THE DISCOUNT DIVA PREPARES YOU FOR SUMMER

Stephanie Flavelle
Discount Diva,
AAA Discounts &
Rewards® Specialist

Let's get ready for summer by saving some money with your AAA Northampton County Discount Diva! Families are back at it, running from work to children's activities and don't have time to cook. We have a large list of local restaurants that can take care of that for you. If you want to grab a sweet treat for the kids or the whole team after a game, you can visit Rita's Italian Ice at the Nazareth location and receive 10% off your purchase. (Restrictions do apply.)

Take a stroll in beautiful Downtown Easton on a nice day and stop into Bank Street Creamery and receive 10% off your entire order. Also, not too far up the street from there you can visit the Sigal Museum to check out one of its exhibits and you can receive 20% off your museum store purchases. (No other offers apply.) Staying on the museum track, you can take the family to the Delaware & Lehigh National Heritage Corridor/National Canal Museum & Canal Boat Ride and have a little history lesson. Members will receive 15% off museum tickets. (Excludes Special Events and any other offers.)

Will you be heading to any graduations or have kids heading to prom? Check out Gift Box Floral & Garden for all your floral needs. It is located in Forks Township on Sullivan Trail. When you show your AAA membership card, you will receive 10% off a regular-priced item.

If you love to be outside and wash your car or need to do some of your own work, stop by Advance Auto Parts (in the 25th Street Plaza on Nazareth Road in Easton) and receive 10% off non-sale items (excludes oil, antifreeze and batteries).

Interested in doing something fun with the kids this summer? Stop by our office at 3914 Hecktown Road, Easton, and purchase your discount tickets to Dorney Park, Hersheypark, Sesame Place and other great amusement parks. If it's too hot outside, get tickets for Crayola Factory or Baltimore Aquarium. Maybe check out a movie at Regal Cinemas or AMC Theatres and purchase your discount ticket at our office.

You can find a complete list of local Discount & Rewards partners on AAA's website AAANC.com/discounts or in any issue of AAA NOW! as well as our office flyers. If you have a smartphone while on your summer vacation, download the free AAA Mobile App to see discounts you can get wherever you are.

PENSKE'S KEYS TO A SUCCESSFUL DO-IT-YOURSELF MOVE

The secret to a good DIY move is to start early and plan efficiently. Plan not just for your moving day, but for the busy weeks before and after. Here's a quick checklist courtesy of Penske Truck Rental.

BEFORE THE MOVE TIMELINE SIX TO EIGHT WEEKS

- Determine the right size rental truck and reserve your vehicle (utilize the Truck Loading Wizard at PenskeTruckRental.com and reserved a truck).
- Identify supplies and accessories you'll need: boxes, tape, padding, hand trucks, etc. (available at Penske locations and online).
- Check with your insurance company to make sure you have proper coverage.
- Order new mailing and return address labels.

FIVE WEEKS

- Arrange to donate unneeded items to local charities or host a garage sale.
- If you will no longer be using their services, start checking with doctors, dentists, optometrists, pharmacists and veterinarians to determine whether to pick up your records or have them forwarded to new professionals.

FOUR WEEKS

- Contact utilities to set up meter readings and billing.
- Contact utilities at your new address to arrange the start of new service. Contact schools at your new location and register your children.
- Reserve storage space if necessary.

THREE WEEKS

- Find a bank close to your new home.
- Request additional refills of vital medications.
- Pick up school records.
- Pick up packing supplies.

TWO WEEKS

- File a change-of-address notice and send change-of-address cards.
- Have your cars inspected and serviced.
- If they're not traveling with you immediately, make arrangements to board your pets.
- Consider a hotel room for the night of the move.

ONE WEEK

- Return items you've borrowed from neighbors and make sure you have everything back from them.

- Transfer prescriptions to a pharmacy convenient to your new home.
- Empty your safe deposit box – put the contents in a well-labeled envelope to make it easier to find them when you contract for a new box.
- Pack travel bags and confirm travel arrangements.

ONE DAY

- Pick up your rental truck and make sure all drivers are included on your rental agreement.

MOVING DAY

- Have beverages and snacks on hand for your moving crew.
- Pick an accessible spot to stash last-minute supplies.
- Load your truck, starting with heavy and bulky items.

At your new residence: make additional sets of keys or change locks, update vehicle registrations, voter registrations, and pet licenses.
